

A Measurement Program for Analysing and Estimating of Voltage Dips in the Electric Power System

Written by Administrator

Thursday, 24 March 2011 15:49 - Last Updated Monday, 08 September 2014 18:45

---

Dietrich Stade, Holger Schau, Jens Hünermund

This paper is dealing with a measurement campaign performed in the electric power system of Germany. All voltage levels including, these measurements take place in transmission and distribution networks and will take place a the load side as well. Electric utilities and regional suppliers...

Download full text